

The Siegelbaum Literary and Visual Arts Competition Contest Guidelines 2019

1. All entries must relate to the contest theme: Resistance: Sketches of Courage.
2. All entries must be accompanied by a completed Siegelbaum Literary & Visual Arts Competition Entry Form. If the entry was created by a group, there must be a completed entry form for each and every student who participated in it. Entrant's name and school must NOT appear on the entry itself.
3. Entries must fall into one of the following categories: prose, poetry, or visual arts.
4. All entries submitted must be original and unpublished. No revisions will be accepted once an entry is received.
5. By entering the Siegelbaum Literary and Visual Arts Competition, permission is hereby granted by participants and their parents/guardians to allow the Holocaust Museum & Center for Tolerance and Education to use their names and submissions in print or internet form.
6. All prose entries must be in 12 point type, double spaced, and must be limited to 500 words.
7. All poetry entries must be in 12 point type and double spaced.
8. Submissions will be accepted electronically and via mail.
9. Artwork must NOT be matted or framed.
10. 3-D art must be able to be placed on a stand without support, or support must be provided.
11. We are unable to accept video presentations.
12. All entries must be submitted to the Museum no later than Monday, May 6, 2019, at 5:00 pm. There are no exceptions.
13. Entries will be judged by middle school and high school divisions in three categories: prose, poetry, and visual arts. Awards will be given to 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place in each category.
14. Winners will be notified on Thursday, June 6, 2019.
15. Winners will be recognized at an award ceremony to be held on Thursday, June 13, 2019. All winners are expected to attend.
16. All entries may be picked up beginning June 18, 2019. Entries which have not been claimed by July 20, 2017 become the property of the Museum.
17. Any submission which falls outside the guidelines or theme of this competition cannot be accepted as an entry into the Siegelbaum Competition.
